

Helping kids,
fighting abuse

Knoxville's Premier Wine & Food Event
Benefitting Childhelp Tennessee

2009 Marks the 11th Annual Les Trois Chef Event

Enjoy fine food and wine, art and entertainment.

Food and Beverage:

- Four renowned Chefs will design courses to tempt your pallet and heighten your senses.
 - David Pinckney, Cherokee Country Club
 - Chester Miller, By The Tracks Bistro
 - Charles Walters, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar
 - Ian Krystik, The Lodge at Buckberry Creek
- A delicious array of appetizers will be provided during the cocktail hour and a decadent dessert to cap of the superb meal.
- Wine pairings is a traditional part of this event and will feature a selection specifically chosen to best compliment each part and course of the meal.

"This event not only helps a great cause, it is truly designed for the food and wine enthusiast," says an attendee from 2008.

Event Details:

- Friday, October 9, 2009 - Cocktails and Silent Auction begin at 6:30 p.m. - Dinner at 8 p.m.
- The elegant Cherokee Country Club will host the event supporting Childhelp Tennessee.
- Parking will be available at the club and the event will be hosted in the main ballroom.
- The cocktail hour held in the River Room will feature a superb selection of silent auction items, the ability to review the live auction items in advance, and great fellowship with comrades.

Tickets:

- Tickets must be purchased in advance.
- Cost is $200 per person with a table for ten at $1800.
- Call 865/637-1753 for reservations.
- A portion of each ticket is tax deductible; details provided upon purchase.

Proceeds from the event sponsorships, ticket sales, the auctions and monetary donations go to support Childhelp Tennessee.

Auction:

- Guests will have the opportunity to bid on both silent and live auction items ranging from exclusive wines to artwork, and from trips to events.
- A listing of all auction items will be provided to all registered attendees two weeks prior to the event, and again at the evening of the event.

Childhelp Tennessee strengthens our community by supporting victims of child abuse and their families.

For More Information:

- Cheryl Ball at 865.524.1335, or cheryl@curvededgeconsulting.com
- Hugh Nystrom at the Childhelp Office, contact information below.

Childhelp Tennessee is a non-profit agency operating a child advocacy center and foster family agency.