

Facilitator and Copyright Agreement

By registering for the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe virtual campus, you agree to the following:

- Upon completion of the required training, and as a standard for certification as a Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe facilitator, you understand that should you deliver the curriculum, you are required to do so with fidelity as it is written and consistent with the implementation training modules provided on the virtual campus or under the direction of Childhelp representatives. Modifications to the curriculum and/or delivery systems are not permitted, but may be considered after review by staff members within the development team from Childhelp.
- Any deviation from the curriculum during implementation undermines the research and development of the evidence base of the curriculum. This is strictly prohibited and is inconsistent with the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe facilitator requirements and expectations. Any such deviation may lead to de-certification as a Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe facilitator.
- You understand that you have volunteered to act as a facilitator for the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe curriculum, and your role is to deliver the curriculum as designed and provide the necessary feedback to assist the development team with their ongoing research. Your commitment to this effort will ensure that the curriculum best serves the intent as a primary prevention program. You recognize that you are taking part in a larger collaboration between several agencies and organizations that have a common goal to create a safer environment for children by enhancing their safety education and the incorporation of responsible adults in the effort.
- You recognize that there may be ongoing revisions to the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe curriculum as research and feedback dictates. Adjustments to the curriculum, materials, and best practices may occur at any time, and you understand that you will be notified by Childhelp of any changes to the curriculum and will receive updated materials of same. You are expected to adhere to any changes and utilize the most updated curriculum and materials as they are made available by Childhelp.
- You understand that Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe, all related curriculum materials, and supporting documents are the sole property of Childhelp under protection of all applicable copyright laws. Dissemination of any materials, curriculum, or any of the intellectual properties contained herein without written permission from Childhelp will be a violation of these laws and may be subject to prosecution and/or civil penalties.
- You understand that your role in this effort is to assist Childhelp in the continued development of the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe comprehensive program and that any feedback you provide is done so to enhance their development efforts without restriction.

If you have questions regarding this agreement or use of the Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe™ materials, please contact Childhelp at (480)922-8212 or support@speakupbesafe.org