

Childhelp AZ Young Professionals Auxiliary Presents

THE ACE ON THE 18TH

Golf Charity Event

What: The Ace on the 18th Event is a unique, night-time charity event that combines the thrill of golf with the spirit of giving. Inspired by the prestigious Masters Tournament, attendees are encouraged to come dressed in their finest golf attire. Participants can sign up as a team of four or, if signing up individually, they will be placed in teams of four, fostering a sense of camaraderie and friendly competition. The event takes place on a stunning golf course in beautiful Scottsdale, Arizona, transformed into a glowing spectacle with neon decor and glow-in-the-dark golf balls. Participants will engage in three mini golf games, each offering its own unique challenge and a chance to win awards. As the games unfold, guests can watch from the balcony, offering a breathtaking view of the illuminated course. A variety of food and drinks will be available, ensuring a delightful social experience. The night will culminate in an awards ceremony, where we will honor the top scoring team, best dressed, among other awards. All proceeds from Ace on the 18th will support Childhelp, making it a memorable night of fun, competition, and philanthropy under the stars.
